

This proposed bill, much like the television network's local channels ban on satellite, does, regardless of the consensus opinion, affect people, like myself, who living in rural areas depend on satellite, whether it be TV or radio. Don't vote to deprive us of the luxury of staying informed.....